5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT TACOMA

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

CASE NO. CR09-5434 BHS

9 Plaintiff,

ORDER

v.

10 STERLING TERRANCE
11 HOSPEDALES,

12 Defendant.

13 This matter is before the Court on Defendant Sterling Hospedales' Motion for 14 Early Termination of Supervised Release. Dkt. 182. Generally, the Court gives some 15 deference to the Probation Office to investigate and make a judgment about a supervised
16 residential placement. Here, the Probation Office has recommended that the motion be 17 denied. Dkt. 183. It cites Hospedales' recent admission to two episodes of his failure to 18 report contact with a minor as well as the pending allegations involving illegal sexual 19 activity.

20 Hospedales' probation officer informed him of "the steps required for him to 21 work towards living with his girlfriend and her minor daughter, as these same steps are 22

1 required of other persons under supervision who are similarly situated with Mr.
2 Hospedales. He has not taken any steps towards mitigating his risk....” Dkt. 183 at 3.

3 If Hospedales can provide the Court with a qualified opinion from a sexual
4 deviancy provider that he is not a risk to prepubescent females or to males of any age,
5 and if he implements the steps required by the probation office, the Court would entertain
6 a renewed motion to authorize a living arrangement or modifying the current restrictions
7 regarding contact with children under the age of 18.

8 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion to Modify Conditions of 9 Release, Dkt. 182, is DENIED.

10 Dated this 5th day of December, 2023.
